“Sewa Jyoti”

R.R. Morarka Charitable Trust, Nawalgarh

Acknowledgement

I am glad to place the Annual Report of "Sewa Jyoti" for the year 2018-19 in your hands. This document is an exposure of efforts made by our organization during the last one year.

This annual report is intended to be a very candid document for the concerned citizenry to know how we are faring in our endeavors: how we plan and operate. Needless to say, we have unfailingly clung to values like integrity and transparency.

For the last 24 years, R R Morarka Charitable Trust is working in areas like health, education, women's empowerment, agricultural development, training, forestation and infrastructure development. Other activities include awareness campaigns on socio-economic issues, efforts to preserve cultural heritage and steps to popularize local arts and crafts. Like in the past, the year 2018-19 was an equally eventful and constructive year. We were successful in further expanding the scope and magnitude of our work and reaching out to more people.

I congratulate the staff of RR Morarka Charitable Trust (Sewa Jyoti) and members of the community who have played an important role in the success of our programmes and efforts. I am happy to see that the organization has been able to touch the lives of many sections of the society, especially the weaker ones including the elderly, women, the ill, children, the poor and people affected by natural calamities and tragedies.

As I present this chronicle of our activities and accomplishments, I would like to thank everyone who has directly or indirectly contributed to the work and growth of this organization, and they include the donor agencies and the administration.

Geographical Area

Shekhawati region of Rajasthan, where the RR Morarka Charitable Trust operates, is industrially and agriculturally in a disadvantageous position as it is a desert region. Not only has Shekhawati been at the receiving end of the nature's furies, it has generally remained neglected by the process of development as well.

Villages of the area lack basic facilities like education and healthcare apart from a serious lack of employment opportunities. If any social organization is genuinely committed to development, social service and welfare of people, it will find Shekhawati to be the most appropriate area to concentrate its activities in.

RR Morarka Charitable Trust's interest in Jhunjhunu also emanates from the fact that it is one of the lesser developed districts of Rajasthan. While it has sex ratio of 1000/950, literacy rate is about 74.72%. Availability of health facilities is much less than can be considered satisfactory. Nawalgarh, where the trust's project office operates from, is about 140 KM far from the state capital, Jaipur.

Introduction of the Organization

RR Morarka Charitable Trust, also known as Sewa Jyoti, was founded with a strong resolve to work for national development and service of the society. While cities like Jhunjhunu and Nawalgarh have seen significant amount of infrastructural development carried out by RR Morarka Charitable Trust (also known as Sewa Jyoti), the villages of the area have also benefitted from its activities, especially in the fields of agriculture, healthcare, education, job oriented training and financial awareness.

R. R. Morarka Charitable Trust has taken an initiative to address local problems and issues, sometimes on its own and the sometimes in cooperation with government organizations and departments. In the process, the trust has networked with a number of organizations, both central and provincial, including NABARD, CAPART, and state Govt. NSDC, Agriculture Department, Jhunjhunu Kendriya Sahakari Bank Ltd. Jhunjhunu, Center for health and Social Justice. It has played an objective role in assisting these organizations to reach the people at the grassroots level.

local Govt College. Another notable contribution from the trust is the bus terminal built in Nawalgarh, in the memory of Late Sh. Radheshyam Ji Morarka.

At the local level the trust operates from its project office at 22, Station Road, Nawalgarh, Dist.
